The Noticing Walk

"Eleven people walked past it. Miller didn't."

Go for a walk. Look for three things other people walked right past — a sign, a price, something dropped, something that doesn't add up. Draw it or write it.

MY NAME

DATE

1

WHERE WAS IT?

2

WHERE WAS IT?

3

WHERE WAS IT?

Which one could be worth something to somebody? Why?

The Rule Nobody Wrote Down

"There's a rule. Nobody put it in writing. Nobody announced it."

Think of a rule at home, at school or on your street that nobody ever wrote down — but everybody follows it anyway.

MY NAME

DATE

The rule is…

Who does this rule help?

Who does it cost something?

If you could say one thing about that rule out loud, what would you say?

WealthWise KIDS ADVENTURES

FREE ACTIVITY · BOOK 3

The Hidden Cost Hunt

"Naiya planned it for a year. She still missed something."

You have $20 to throw a party. Write down what you would buy, and what each thing costs.

MY NAME

DATE

WHAT I WOULD BUY	HOW MUCH

Now hunt. Name three things you forgot to count.

Two Dollars, Two Choices

"Macon jumped off the roof without hesitating. He spent two hours deciding about two dollars."

Two things you want. You have enough for only one. Draw or write them both.

MY NAME

DATE

A

HOW MUCH?

B

HOW MUCH?

I pick … because …

What am I giving up by picking it?

Price Tag vs. Worth

"Sai had a button. Sai traded it for something else."

Some things cost a lot and are worth a little. Some things cost nothing and are worth a lot. Fill in both sides.

MY NAME _____ DATE _____

Things that cost the most money

_____

_____

_____

Things that are worth the most to me

_____

_____

_____

Something I own that cost nothing and I would not give up:

_____

_____